TOMBSTONES THAT ARE NO LONGER EXTANT

*ERBEN, Emma Marie – Rudisleben, Germany: City Cemetery

*ERBEN, Fritz – Rudisleben, Germany: City Cemetery

*KASTNER, Maria – Görlitz, Germany: City Cemetery

*PLUSCHER, Gertud – Görlitz, Germany: City Cemetery

These tombstones no longer exist in the cemetery, as is typical in German cemeteries for tombstones and graves to be removed after the “lease” period is over, usually 20 or 30 years and there is no family to “renew” the grave lease.

*KASTNER, Robert – Kudowa-Czermna, Poland: St. Batholomew Cemetery

Many cemeteries in the former German region of Silesia have been cleared of all German tombstones. Some old tombstones do remain, however, the one for Robert could not be found.

*PREISLER, Emilie – Teplice, Czech Republic: Jewish Cemetery

This cemetery has suffered from vandalism over the years and during WWII. The tombstone base is all that remains of the grave marker for Emilie

*GOLDMAN, Bertha – Detroit, Michigan: Beth Olam Cemetery

*GOLDMAN, Samuel – Detroit, Michigan: Beth Olam Cemetery

No tombstone was found and it is possible that either the tombstone no longer exists or one was never placed on the grave sites as their deaths occurred shortly after their parents came to the US in the early 1900's

*HONNEMICHL, Irma Preissler –Sömmerda, Germany. Her cremated remains were buried anonymously “unter dem grünen Rasen” or in the 'cemetery lawn' per her request

*HONNEMICHL, Max Leopold – Müheln (Geiseltal), Germany: “Town” Cemetery

*HONNEMICHL, Anna Luise – Müheln (Geiseltal): “Town” Cemetery

These tombstones and graves were removed in 1998 as is the practice in German cemeteries

Generations of GOLDMAN and MICHALSKI Family members are buried in the old and new Jewish cemeteries in Gostynin, Poland. These sites were completely destroyed during WWII.

Generation of LEJBA and KAUFMAN Family members are buried in the Jewish cemeteries in Skepe and Dobrzyn nad Wisla, Poland. These cemeteries no longer exist having been destroyed by the Nazi's

Many generations of BAUCH, KOLLER & SCHOR Family members are buried in the Jewish Cemetery in Sobedruhy, Czech Republic. Most of the tombstone are in Hebrew and not all remain. The cemetery suffered damage in 1938, during the war and under Communist rule. Restoration of the cemetery is undergoing and a fence has been installed as the cemetery is a historical & cultural landmark.

The St. Michael's Catholic Cemetery in Lewin-Klodzki, Poland contains the burials of many generations of KASTNER, WELZEL, ULLRICH and related family members. This cemetery, located in the former German region of Silesia was partially cleared for new burials. Some older tombstones do still exist, though none for direct family were located. There is a monument marking the burial of many German residents prior to the end of World War Two.

Legend:

* = tombstone photographed

 = tombstone no longer exists

 = no tombstone placed on grave

(F) = future burial
